

I am not in favor of broadband over power line.

I am an amateur radio operator and feel that interference from the ageing unsheilded power lines, (in commercial use and electrical wireing used in older buildings) will certainly emit harmful interference to needed emergency service communications such as public service, and amateur radio service.